No work may be executed in Truro Public Cemetery unless in compliance with the Cemetery Regulations, the required fees paid and authorisation given from Truro City Council.

In the case of a new memorial or replacement of an existing memorial, all such memorials must be erected and fixed in a manner using such methods that meet the current requirements of the National Association of Memorial Masons (NAMM) or British Register of Accredited Memorial Masons (BRAMM) Code of Working Practice and anchorage system or by other such methods as recognised and approved by NAMM or BRAMM

I (We) propose to erect/remove/add an additional inscription to a memorial in accordance with Truro City Council's Cemetery Regulations and as detailed in the above plan.

I (We) agree that, in the event of the graves immediately adjoining on either side of the grave space upon which it is proposed to erect the memorial not having been dug or used, to hold myself (ourselves) responsible for any damage accruing to the proposed memorial during the digging or occupation of such adjoining grave or graves.

All works will be inspected by the Cemetery Sexton following completion
